         See it come, the holy dwelling
VERSE 1
         Christ prepares for God's elect.
         O'er earth's beauty, far excelling,
         For His hand with pow'r perfects.
         Gates of pearl adorned with splendor,
        Streets laid with the finest gold.
        Sanctified, His saints shall enter
                          C/G
        Heav'nly glories yet untold.
                               C/A
         Sun and moon shall shine no longer
VERSE 2
         For the Lamb is heaven's light;
         He illumes its every corner –
         All lies bare before His sight.
         Darkness there cannot abideth
        For Christ's glory fills the span.
         There He'll surely bring to fullness
        That which He at first began.

C/A When with us God tabernacles, VERSE 3 'Round His throne we'll e'er reside. Broken then our mortal shackles – C/G G C Bound to Christ, His ho-ly bride. Gone the days of sin's oppression – Death cast out eternally. Saved fore'er as God's possession, C/G G C | F G Clothed with immorta-li-ty. D/B By His hand He'll comfort gently VERSE 4 They that reach this blissful shore; Giv'n by grace eternal entry To the rest of Christ the Lord. Then we'll see, with eyes unfettered, With what depths He loves His own. In the arms of Christ our Shepherd, D/A |G A D|

Singing praise to God alone.
